

Cervical Stabilization

Retraction / Chin Tuck

Repeat: 3 Times
Hold: 10 Seconds
Complete: 1 Set
Perform: 2 Time(s) a Day

Slowly draw your head back so that your ears line up with your shoulders. Tuck your chin slightly down towards your chest.

You should have NO PAIN with this exercise. No discomfort in the neck. If you feel fatigue, it should be in the front of your neck. Nothing, aside from possibly a light stretch, should be felt in the back of the neck.

Isometric Extension

Seated in a chair, place one hand on the back of your head. Push your hand into your head and your head into your hand like you are trying to look upwards. Match the pressure from the head with the pressure from your hand so that neither move. This should be a comfortable contraction and not maximal effort.

Repeat: 3 Times
Hold: 10 Seconds

Wall Snow Angel

Begin standing against wall with elbows abducted to 90 degrees and shoulder blades retracted (pulled in and down) and cervical spine in a chin tuck. Without shrugging shoulders, slide bent arms up the wall as if making a snow angel. Return to starting position without allowing shoulder blades to protract. Make sure your shoulders, elbows and hands maintain contact with the wall throughout this exercise.
